Dear Prime Minister,

I appeal to you to drop all charges against Panusaya “Rung” Sithijirawattanakul. She and other university students have been peacefully protesting as part of Thailand’s democracy movement. Her commitment to non-violence and justice should be respected. She faces multiple criminal charges and the possibility of life in prison.

Citizens of Thailand need the opportunity to participate in the political process and advocate for peaceful and constructive changes. A first step should be an end to the prosecution of Panusaya and others who speak out.

Sincerely,
