Dear Attorney General,

Wendy Galarza was shot and seriously wounded at a feminist march in Cancún on November 9, 2020. Participants were fired upon by police.

Please uphold the rule of law by launching a thorough and impartial investigation of the shooting that injured Wendy Galarza. Investigate the violations that she suffered and ensure that all those responsible are brought to justice.

Sincerely,

Attorney General of Quintana Roo

Dear Attorney General,

On November 9, 2020, Wendy Galarza nearly lost her life to such violence. She attended a feminist march in Cancún where police fired shots and she was wounded. She launched a case against the police, but those responsible for the violence have not been brought to justice.

Show Wendy and the world that you take violence against women seriously. Impartially and thoroughly investigate the violations that she suffered and ensure that all those responsible are brought to justice.

Sincerely,
